Mother's Day brunch is nice and all, but it's cliché. And crowded. And expected. And often pricey.

Instead, on Sunday, May 12, take her out for a cocktail and show her just how original and spectacular she is to you. Or tell her you're making up for all those times you drove her to drink.

Sapporo

For the mom who is young at heart, take her to the always-buzzing Sapporo in Scottsdale.

Some women love to be in the middle of the mix, in the white-hot center of the trend zone, and Sapporo, a gleaming teppenyaki and sushi palace, is one of the scene-iest scenes in the Valley.

Order her the Mother's Little Helper (with apologies to the Rolling Stones, of course), a mix of strawberries, lemonade, Absolut Citron and St. Germain topped with brut for bubbles and garnished with a sugared rim for sweetness, $10.
